

M O R A L.

Nature the wants of life supplies,
Nor what is requisite denies;
With these if we are not content,
We must to justice leave th' event.

R E F L E C T I O N.

The Snake and wounded Raven prove
How indirect our passions move;
Our senses all on pleasures dwell,
Which strike the eye, the taste, the smell,
And we too late our errors find,
In pain and sad remorse of mind.

The LION, ASS

A War betwixt the bi
Was breaking out-
The Lion, sov'reign of
Resolv'd his grandeur to Great were the national
And subjects call'd to ta
Variety of hares and ass
(Whose number my acc

The